

Sacred Ground Session 10

1 Opening Prayer

2 Lectio Divina

3 Questions

- 1 What patterns have you observed in the history covered in this series?
- 2 How are you seeing racial identity in America differently now? How are you seeing your own racial identity and racial story differently now?
- 3 How would you define racism now? How does the concept of racism as sin land with you?
- 4 What feelings have surfaced for you during the Sacred Ground journey? How are you sitting with them?
- 5 What discoveries have especially affected you, shocked you or stayed with you, and what feelings have they sparked?
- 6 How do Tad Hargrave's articulation of the 5 stages of grief and/or Resmaa Menakem's focus on embodied multi-generational trauma resonate with you?
- 7 As you look at your own racial story and connect it to the stories and histories in Sacred Ground, what do you most grieve?

4 Closing Litany of Repentance
